

Lindley Hornsby

New Mexicans value safety and freedom, and we deserve policy that will make our environment safer and maintain the Land of Enchantment's natural resources. Every day, our access to clean air and safe water is threatened by the state's extreme over-reliance on emission-emitting vehicles. Please make policy that financially incentivizes use of clean energy in the transportation sector. Our lives depend on it.