

Karl Kiser

I wish to offer my support for the clean car and truck rule. Pollution, from various sources, come from ICE vehicles. Additional zero-emission vehicles would substantially reduce such pollution and benefit the residents of New Mexico. They would be especially useful in urban areas where air quality is compromised.