

Anonymous Anonymous

To Whom it May Concern, New Mexico is not equipped to apply these proposed standards. Some people don't even have electricity in the first place, so can not plug in a vehicle. I ask you to reconsider adopting these standards.