

Patrick Rich

I oppose the California Advanced Clean Cars and Truck Rule. How can we in good faith apply the same rules to NM as CA? We have a very large land area with very few people. The infrastructure is not there. NM also has a very diverse socioeconomic population. Many of our citizens cannot afford the high cost of EV's much less the installation of a charger at their home.