

craig lysak

It is a bad idea to force people to buy an electric vehicle in a state that we have to travel 200 miles to get to a major town. people will be going out of state to get vehicles and the state will lose tax money. please let the consumers decide what they want to purchase