

Denise Baker

My family has lived in the area since 1968.

The area affected by this proposal will be negatively impacted by the increased traffic, pollution and potentially toxic chemicals in the air.

The Mountain View community consists of schools, farm land and growing families.

There are several other options further south away from residential communities that should be considered