

Paul Sedillo

I do not want a transfer station in my neighborhood. My family and I have been here for decades and I plan to retire here without having to worry about further pollution. Broadway already has too many businesses that have the capacity to poison my water well, which I rely on as my only water source. Keep the waste transfer station out of my neighborhood.