

Felicia Maes

Felicia Maes.

I strongly disagree with transfer station. Many of the homes in the south Valley rely on ground water and this transfer station could and probably will contaminate our precious resources. There is already large gas trucks on Broadway and Dessert daily, adding to the traffic congestion will greatly impact access to neighborhoods and will add excess noise pollution.