

Monica Ponce Sedillo

The Mountain View neighborhood does not need a transfer station bringing in trash and environmental pollution from other counties or anywhere for that matter. We already have too many car part businesses leaking engine oils into the soil, an asphalt business and countless of semi-trucks driving along Second and Broadway street. Keep in mind the water treatment facility, the largest in the state, already adds an odor to our neighborhood. Keep the transfer station out of our neighborhood!