

Joe Horejs

I am not in support of the proposed Broadway Transfer Station because the activity in the location will cause too much traffic and I am also concerned about the health risks the transfer station poses to the community living there.