

Julie Heffernan

I strongly opposed the proposed Broadway transfer station. This would interfere with the community in multiple ways including the homes, local elementary school, railroad, community center, and local walking and biking paths.