

Carol Norris

Do the right thing: prohibit products that contain per- and poly-fluoroalkyl substances, and require full disclosure of all products sold or distributed in New Mexico. They are dangerous and shouldn't be in consumer products. Thank you.