

Anonymous Anonymous

I am from Canada, and while this data centre is not built in my country, it's negative effects will be felt throughout the world. I am firmly against the continuation of Project Jupiter. The consequences of prioritizing monetary gain has blinded people from looking at the larger implications that this data centre will bring to our planet. Humanity deserves better than a large useless data centre that only serves to make money for the wealthy while neglecting the environment and other humans.