

Anonymous Anonymous

I plan to have a life here in Las Cruces, NM. It is a beautiful town with beautiful people. I value these people and their hard work. I also value their opinions. One would think to listen to the opinions of those that live here rather than those that don't. The people here do not want a data center. We want clean air, water, and a lack of noise pollution. We want understanding and consideration.