

James Schwar

I urge the court and state leadership to halt all data center activity until Congress passes strong national safeguards to protect workers, consumers and communities, defend privacy and civil rights and ensure these technologies do not harm our environment.