

Ellie W

First of all, data centers are doom factories. There is no reason that we the people need to sacrifice our access to clean and abundant water in order to fuel the desires of billionaires to create child porn. Secondly, this is a rape of the land, the air, the water, and the wildlife. As we continue our assault on the Earth, she will continue being unable to sustain human life. We are effectively suffocating ourselves.