

Fox Richards

I am in strong opposition of Project Jupiter and any other data centers that may be proposed in the future. These structures require a large quantity of natural resources that are already finite in New Mexico. We cannot ignore the permanent harm this would cause to our environment and the people who live here.