

anonymous anonymous

Please stop, I am a young generation myself and instead of worrying about dying of old age, I am worrying about dying cause of climate change. This world is slowly dying and capitalism is making it worse. I am scared and beyond terrified about my future, OUR FUTURE. Please stop building more data centers and protect our only planet. We don't have plan B. Take actions, it's never too late.