

April Rubio

Project Jupiter represents an overreach that bypasses our established community zoning laws. This development benefits outside investors at the expense of current residents, offering zero long-term value to our neighborhood. We demand transparency from our local officials and an immediate halt to Project Jupiter until resident concerns are fully addressed.