

Candela Fernández

The 'Jupiter Project' endangers both the human and the wildlife's communities of New Mexico, and threatens to contribute to change our climate and further worsen our quality of life. Furthermore, it runs counter to the interests of the majority of New Mexico's residents, who, moreover, will derive no benefit from this project, whilst suffering its consequences on a daily basis. I beg for it to be stopped.