

Lenore Bayoneto

Allowing Project Jupiter to go forward will be incredibly detrimental to the citizens of New Mexico in a multitude of ways, including worsening air quality, noise pollution, water waste, and driving up energy costs for residents. Their permit should be denied given Bloom's history of regulatory issues, the harms from this project will no doubt outweigh any theoretical benefits.