

Anonymous Anonymous

We need this rule, especially to protect farmworkers who put food (and chile) on our tables! We do not have any farmworker unions and when farmworkers speak out, they experience retaliation without recourse. We need to collectively protect our agricultural sector and the farmworkers that keep it running.