

Laurence Cox

The draft regulation is unnecessary & unreasonable. Experienced workers and supervisors know that regular "rest breaks" in shady areas are necessary when working on a hot day.

This regulation, like many unnecessary regulations, are taken advantage of. This one, in particular, will cause work delays & budget overruns.

In summary, this proposed regulation would be unnecessary and counterproductive for businesses in NM and should not be adopted.