Wow! What's next? Are you going to dictate how we wipe after we defecate? I mean, get real!!!!

Let's just add three times the expense to every construction project in the state, as well as indefinite time to completion! I support AGC NM's suggestions. I support training. I do not support making a rule or law of any kind. Life is full of risks. If you don't want any risk, perhaps you shouldn't get out of bed.
