

Bill Sanderson

This rule shouldn't be approved. It doesn't provide information on how poor enforcement will be managed, lacks resources for worksites, adds too much administrative burden and increases construction costs for tax payers. It needs more careful consideration to truly work.