

Mark Peter

Utterly ridiculous. This is proof of the devolution of mankind...our grandparents were hardworking and tough. Today, everyone is a delicate snowflake. This will destroy businesses and they will leave New Mexico to a state that has sanity...don't do it. We have the worst roads in the nation and at the rate of progress they can't even keep up with maintenance and repairs today. This will seal our fate and our state will crumble into obscurity.