

Anonymous Anonymous

Last summer, my brother collapsed while working maintenance at a school. He was not provided rest, shade, or water on the job before or after he got sick. The day of, he was told to keep working and not offered or told to seek care or treatment. Employers need to be educated on risks and heat safety standards. Employees need to be protected.