

Michael Finch

Please reject this new regulation. This would be very harmful to business. The federal guidelines have been in force for years and have served New Mexico and many other states well.