

RHODA WINTERS

I have lived and worked in Southern New Mexico for many years. I worked outside in 100+ degree temperatures many times. The proposed rule of a 45 minute break for every 15 minutes of work is incredibly stupid! What you really need is a constant source of water. I have worked just fine in those temperatures as long as I could drink at least 32 ounces of water in 4 hours time.