

Connie Adler

Heat kills more people than cold. We live in a State where the sun shines 300 days a year. We are very dependent upon outdoor workers, workers in factories, construction and many other jobs that put them at the mercy of the heat and sun.

We need to develop and pass the strongest possible safety conditions and responses to protect our workforce from unhealthy and unsafe working conditions. Work with them to develop humane and healthy working conditions.