

Kevin Goodreau

This has to be one of the dumbest business killing legislation ever created by legislators in the State of NM.

As a former employer in the solar industry I can't imagine this ever being a concern of any of our numerous employee.

I have to believe this was initiated by someone who either worked for a company who was illegitimate or illegal.