

Steve Allen

This regulation will break already damaged local businesses as well as any and all agriculture. New Mexican business owners can manage their own care of their employees. No government intrusion is asked for or necessary