

Charles Otero

We do not need more burden on employers. This policy will also increase the cost of service companies have to charge NM consumers. NM should provide guidelines, not regulations. We can not and should not regulate all aspects of every person's life.