

Jayne Neal

As a musician old enough to remember tyrannical conductors who held musicians late into the night & provided scanty breaks, I really appreciate the NM law the way it is! It is already reasonable & adequate. Please leave this alone. Businesses (my husband operates a NM business) cannot afford this ridiculous proposal, nor can employees get anything done when they lose concentration & momentum so frequently.