

Joseph Tunis

This proposal is insane. If an employee is only going to work 25% of the time they are not needed. It boggles the mind how the only solutions New Mexicans can suggest are either more pay or more time off.