

Anonymous Anonymous

WE have been in business since 1972, we provide Gatorade, water and ice for all employees along with uniforms & PPE. We live in the desert and anyone with common sense knows when to take a break to cool off without the government telling us when we can and cannot work. Excessive Sick pay was already shoved down our throats, what's next?