

Sarah Wood

There is no reason for this rule and I oppose it. It will place unnecessary administrative burdens on both the State and the businesses who have to fill out paperwork instead of taking a no duh break to cool off. People have coped with working in hot & cold extremes forever.