

Marion Downey

If the heat is that bad have workers stay home using vacation time or if no vacation time is left on the books, then no pay for time taken. This is ridiculous it would slow things down even more in New Mexico than it already is. This should not be considered and shut down as soon as possible.