

350 New Mexico

Only a predatory business would subject their workers to unsafe work conditions. If you can't protect your workers, you should not be in business. We know that future years will become hotter and hotter. New Mexico absolutely needs a safe heat standard.