

Nicole Keeney

I can't believe anyone who would really disagree with this, but just in case we need a reminder. We live in a desert! People die every year from over heating. So children will be fine at schools during May and August without A/C. They are more likely to forget to drink enough water and take care of themselves during high heat waves. Please support this to help keep all NM safe during our only major weather issue.