

Melanie Gunter

Use common sense. Workers need water breaks and extreme heat work pauses to prevent serious injuries and death from severe dehydration. Did anyone consult a medical professional before suggesting such an insane bill? FFS, you wouldn't walk a dog on pavement in excessive heat. Y'all really want to be sued after the first inevitable death from such an asinine bill?