

Greg Alpers

Whom ever is writing these ridiculous rules has never worked in private industry. This is burdensome and over bearing for both small and large businesses. This is overreach by government. Government is supposed to be business friendly. NM is last in the nation in almost all categories. This kind of RULE, not law will further cement our reputation as a poor state to invest in. You just cannot fix Stupid.