

Doyle Roof Masters

Our company has always provided water, ice, electrolytes, shade, hats, cooling bandanas, and training on dealing with heat exposure. In the summer, hours start and end earlier depending on the temperatures.

Implementing a 45-minute work to a 15-minute rest period will destroy production and profits. The worker's paychecks will suffer as well. Sensible precautions and mandates are already in place. This bill is utterly unworkable.