

Summit Construction

Summit Construction is opposed to this regulation as it over steps its intended purpose. Our company has performed over 3 Million man hours without a single heat related injury. Heat stress is to be taken seriously and our industry is proactive in our approach and how we keep our employees safe and educated on heat related injuries. As written currently, working less then 3 hours a day due to the frequency and duration of breaks is unrealistic and does not factor in real conditions.