

Claudette Selph

I am solidly in support of the strongest clean transportation fuel program possible. NM is the second largest producer of oil and gas in the country. We can provide leadership for the rest of the country to do what is right for the environment and future generations. Thank for taking my opinion into your decisions.