

ROBERT Libby

As 2024 was the warmest year on record, it is painfully obvious that climate change is real, and New Mexico has the chance to be a leader in helping to alleviate future disasters. Please move to curb carbon emissions.