

Luknė Kirsnytė

It's insane that people think that we cannot live without AI. It's absolutely unnecessary and so bad for our planet. Stop this and use other technologies that can cooler the data centers and don't use water and use technologies that are way less harmful for humans, animals and our environment.