

Elena Wegmann

I do not support Project Jupiter. Use of AI leads to the cognitive surrender of our youth and impact their reading comprehension and access to educational growth. Data centers waste massive amounts of water, create noise, and deplete wildlife and biodiversity. Advertisements that are on streaming services are misleading and are not presenting truthful data about their community impact.