

Patricia Emerson

Please don't do this. I have Asthma and the air quality is really important to me because if it gets worse, which will 100% happen with this data center my asthma attacks will be more frequent and the risk of having COPD is also heighten. As an Air Quality Bureau the lung health of the citizens should be top priority and you should not give permits to anyone that risk damaging the air quality you are meant to protect.