

Sara anonymous

I want a world for my children, please stop this needless killing of our planet. Start caring about more than money and power and start caring about community and your fellow man.